Callan, Ingersoll Enter Election

With the announcement this week that Mrs. Pearl Jones will not seek reelection to the Jefferson High School Board of Trustees, Lyal Ingersoll, 639 Crocker Street, said he would seek election to the board.

Incumbent Thomas Callan, Sr., declared he would seek reelection to the board. Also, Callan this week filed for election to the San Mateo Junior College Board of Trustees.

Candidates have until 30 days before the election, to be held May 18, to file for a position on the board.

Ingersoll is a long time resident of Daly City, and is a well known contractor here. Callan is a pioneer resident, and has served the community for the past 40 years.

Meanwhile, at the regular meeting of the Jefferson High School Board Monday evening bids for 100 chairs and desks were opened. Contract for the job was awarded the H. S. Crocker company.

Bids for a new school bus also were opened, but action on the bids was taken under advisement.

ONE CASE WHERE THE NICKLE REIGNS

....Parking meters, at least in Daly City, are waging a campaign against inflation.

Police officers report the meters will not "recognize" a dime, and will settle only for the lowly penny, or humble nickle. Many a driver has discovered this fact, too late, when he has dropped a dime into the meter slot.

....Whereas everything from beer to bobby pins has jumped from a nickle to a dime, it is heartening to know that the parking meters will register only a nickle or a penny . . . no dimes permitted.

Remember, a nickle will get you an hour on the meters; but the dime will get you exactly nothing.

54 Men Inducted Into Army Friday

This Friday 54 young San Mateo County men will be inducted into the armed forces, Mrs. Virginia Anderson, coordinator for Selective Service System local boards 57 and 58, announced today.

Some 233 men are being given physical examinations today at 307 Second Avenue in San Mateo for possible induction in April.

The majority of draftees are from 19 to 20 years old.

COLMA SCHOOL TO OPEN APRIL 1st

Double Sessions To Be Eliminated

The 8-room, $152,000 new Colma school will be open for 320 children in the seventh and eighth grades April 2, James Snell, superintendent of schools, announced today.

With the opening of the ultra modern school, all double session classes, east of Junipero Serra boulevard, will be eliminated . . . at least until next fall. Presently there are 12 classes on double sessions.

As planned, students from the seventh and eighth grades of Crocker, and from the seventh grade of Jefferson will move into the new school.

Double sessions on the other side of Junipero Serra are expected to be discontinued when the new Westlake school opens about September 1.

Meanwhile, the new Colma school will be formally dedicated Sunday, April 1 at 2 p.m.

The formal exercises will include short talks by the County Superintendent of Schools, Mr. James R. Tormey and Mrs. Stella Jensen, President of the San Mateo County School Trustees Association. The Grand Parlor of the Native Sons of the Golden West will be represented at the dedication in the person of Edward Wren, Grand President of that organization.

The local American Legion and Veterans' Organizations will also participate with a Color Guard and the raising of the Flag for the first time over this new building. Mr. Michael C. Callan, member of the Board of Trustees will serve as Master of Ceremonies and will present local civic and school officials who are to be platform guests at the dedication.

BI-MONTHLY WATER BILLING APPROVED

Residents indicated this week almost unanimous approval of the city's plan for bi-monthly instead of monthly water billing, Mayor Paul Green said today.

Indications are that the plan will go into operation in the very near future.

The 25 cent deduction for prompt payment of the bill will be applied to the new plan, but it will be 25 cents for two months, not 50 cents. The saving in the volume price of water will make up the difference, the mayor said.

Side Street Meters Up For Discussion

Parking meters will come under discussion at the regular meeting of the Daly City council Monday night.

Mayor Paul Green said the council will consider the removing of several meters on side streets. These meters, over the past month, have proven unsatisfactory, the mayor said. Just what meters are involved will not be revealed until Monday.

The mayor noted that outside of the "side street" meter issue, the status of the other meters would remain the same at this time.

Westlake Meets Red Cross Quota

Thanks to a concerted effort on the part of a score of Westlake women, Westlake went over the top this week in the Red Cross Drive.

The women, under the direction of Mrs. Wayne Herzog, acted on the block theory of collection. In less than a day they had blanketed Westlake and collected over $700, Mrs. Marion McKaskle, district chairman, noted today.

This brings the total Red Cross fund for the residential distirct up to about $1,000, Mrs. McKaskle said.

Women of Westlake who so generously donated their time and effort to this year's Red Cross drive include Mesdames: Herzog, who more than any single woman was responsible for the great success of the Westlake drive, and: Joe Futernick, Allen J. Foster, Gordon F. Mertens, Alvin Steinfeld, Edward A. Zeisler, John T. Barnhard, Robert A. Carr, Egbert M. Stondahl, Leon Ostrow, Henry P. Palazy, Leonard S. Openheim, Leonard L. DeMartini, Sol I. Lieberman, Ganon, Paul F. Payne, Lewis W. Berry, Leland Miller, Maurice F. Englander, Martin J. O'Connor, Frank Economou, and Wayne E. Herzog.

DECISION COMING AT MONDAY NIGHT COUNCIL MEETING

SUNRISE SERVICE SLATED SUNDAY

Inter-Church Choir To Sing Easter Anthem

The Lutheran Inter-church Choir of San Francisco, composed of members from the various Lutheran Churches of the city, will sing the anthem, "Alleluia! Christ is risen" by Alfred Whitehead at the Easter Sunrise service at the El Rancho Drive-In Theatre on Easter morning.

The choir is under the direction of W. Albert Rubke.

The Easter message will be delivered by Chaplain Oscar C. Reinboth, who was called back into active duty and is now located at Camp Roberts. Chaplain Reinboth was active in the last war in the Italian sector. Ater the war he became active as one of the outstanding leaders of his church in the Bay Area. He served as Mission director for the California-Nevada district.

First of Kind

This Easter service will be the first of its kind to be held in a drive-in theater in this area. The setting for the service is ideal. The El Rancho is located on one of the hills surrounding the southern edge of the city. Those attending this service will be able to drive right into the grounds and remain in their cars. They will be able to hear the entire service through the amplifiers located at each car. There will also be ample space for everyone.

The Committee planning the arrangements for this event have gone to a great deal of effort to make this a really inspiring service and to bring to you the message of the Risen Christ.

Service Time

The service wil begin at 5:30 a.m. The Rev. B. P. Wallschlaeger of Grace church will serve as liturgist. To get to the El Rancho those persons coming from the city can go down Mission street to the southern edge of Colma and turn right at the stop-light to the theater. Or they can go down 19th Ave. and turn left on the Junipero Serra extension after passing Cypress Lawn. From the south they should take El Camino to 19th Ave. Extension on the southern edge of Colma and turn left to the theater.

COUNCIL OKEHS EMPLOYE RAISE

But Employes Indicate Pay Boost Not Enough

Daly City employes will be given a 6 per cent pay hike July 1, that is, if they are agreed to accept the raise, it was learned today.

The decision to grant the boost was made at a caucus meeting of the city council Monday evening.

Mrs. Marion McKaskle, representing city employes, noted today she could not speak for her organization, but as an individual she would not accept the 6 per cent raise.

The employes have asked for a $40 a month across-the-board cost of living increase. Under the city's plan, the average raise would be from $12 to $18 a month.

"I, for one, feel that the 6 per cent increase is not enough," Mrs. McKaskle said. "In normal times it would be sufficient, but we made the request for an increase based on abnormal conditions. I am still for the $40 increase."

The council will have an opportunity to explain to city employes the 6 per cent plan at a meeting to be called early in April. It is expected that then they will either accept, or turn down the plan.

Councilmen explain that the raise was decided upon after a study of similar conditions in cities throughout the Bay Area. They assert the 6 per cent raise has been accepted in these cities as fair and equitable.

They pay hike, if accepted, would effect 42 employes on the civil service rolls, and cost the city an additional $900 to $1000 a month.

Connecting Street Still Stymied

A connecting street between Westlake and Broadmoor is no closer today despite a meeting between members of the Jefferson Elementary School Board and county planning commission last Friday.

The only outcome of the meeting was to call another meeting in the very near future between the interested parties and the board of supervisors.

County Engineer M. A. Grant remained adamant in his demand that the proposed street run adjacent to the new Garden Village School. On the other hand, school thumbs down on this plan, suggesting another route to run adjacent to White Street.

The dispute is now entering its second year.

Whether or not rents will be decontroled in Daly City probably is to be decided Monday evening at the regular meeting of the Daly City Council.

The decision to hold the public hearing was made last Monday night following a discussion between 15 landlords and Daly City councilman. At that time the landlords requested controls be discontinued here after March 31.

Questions Asked

Meanwhile, the council has wired Congressman Jack Anderson for a clarification of the complete rent question. This week the President signed a stop-gap measure which wil continue rent controls until June 30. However, this still leaves it up to individual communities to decide whether or not to continue the controls.

"We wish to find whether the government has any bills pending which would effect our actions in Daly City," Mayor Paul Green explained today. "It would be foolish to take action on controls, if three weeks later the government stepped in and either abolished, or continued such controls."

Regardless of Congressman Anderson's reply, the public hearing will be held. Consequently anyone interested in rents is asked to appear so the council may make a fair decision.

Landlords Explain

In requesting that controls be lifted, landlords Monday evening asserted that even without rent ceilings there would be no "gouging" of tenants. The landlords promised to keep rents on a fair basis.

They went on to claim that in many cases present rents are unfair to them.

"I am now renting a four-room, fully furnished apartment for only $40 a month," one landlord said. "This is not enough to pay for repairs and taxes."

Repeat

This same story was repeated time and time again by the 15 men and women present at the meeting. They asserted they represented about 200 rental units in Daly City, of which Lagomarsino was the single largest landlord, representing almost 150 units.

At the present time about 80 per cent of rental units here are under control. There is no estimate of how many apartments and rooms are rented in this area.

On the other hand, tenants are quick to point out that where landlords are not receiving enough rent they may petition for an increase from the San Francisco Rent Office. The Office reviews the landlord's case, and if it feels he is justified in asking for an increase, it is given.

When asked what they thought about this procedure, several of Monday night's compainants asserted that this was all well and good, but often their appeal ended up in a mess of red tape without results.

THREE OFFICERS TAKE REFRESHER COURSE

Three Daly City police officers, on their own time this week were taking refresher courses at the San Francisco Police Academy.

They are Officers: James Baird, John VanOtten and David Hansen.

Classes covering every phase of police work are held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day. After attending the classes, officers go on duty.

Come To Church

CAMPAIGN OPENS TO PROMOTE ATTENDANCE

Heralded by a proclamation from Mayor Paul Green, 13 churches of the Daly City-Colma area this week will launch a timely "Come to Church" campaign designed to promote community-wide church attendance.

The campaign is being conducted through the columns of THE RECORD. Beginning with this week's issue and continuing for 13 weeks, a full page in the Record each week will broadcast a religious appeal to thousands of local residents.

Features

The "Come to Church" page will feature a different "Church of the Week" each issue. It will carry a sermonette or message from the church's pastor, a picture of the pastor and a picture of the church.

On the opening page this week is featured Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic church, with pictures of the church, the three parish priests—Fathers James Bergin, William Stewart and Raymond Daly. The church's Holy Week services and a background sketch of the church and her priests are included.

Thereafter, all churches of the area, regardless of faith or denomination, will be featured—one each week for the next 13 weeks.

Proclamation

Calling for public support to the church campaign, Mayor Green's formal proclamation opening the drive, is as follows:

WHEREAS, a "Come to Church" campaign is being conducted among Daly City-Colma district churches for a period of 13 weeks for the purpose of stimulating church attendance, and,

WHEREAS, Daly City and Colma's leading business, professional and industrial people are giving generously of their support to aid such campaign, and,

WHEREAS, such campaign is timely and important to a nation fighting in a war for the preservation of human and spiritual ideals against forces which would deny even the right to worship, now,

THEREFORE, I, Paul Green, mayor of Daly City, do hereby declare Easter Sunday, March 25, 1951, to be "Come to Church" Sunday in our churches, and further, I do urge that our residents attend our churches and during the next 13 weeks of the "Come to Church" campaign give of their time and effort to aid the religious appeals of our churches, regardless of their denomination.

(Signed) PAUL GREEN,
Mayor of Daly City.

From A Corner

By Bill Katz

War, as the general's art of playing chess with the blood and guts of men and material is the subject of a fascinating new book out this month, Rommel, The Desert Fox.

The work is timely in the light of a world gearing for war. More than the story of Rommel, the book is concerned with a "small minority of professional soldiers who find in war the one occupation to which they are perfectly adapted." And while the author, Brigadier Desmond Young, doesn't care for the term, the book is an insight into the "trade union of general."

More Here

More than the fabulous story of the rise and fall of Romel, the book gives the average laymen a subjective view of war as seen through the eyes of the professional soldier. It is an alarming view. The author speaks of eliminating men and tanks with the same coolness and detachment that the average reader would employ in a chess or checker game.

Upon completing the book the reader has the impression that war, after all, is a hell of a think; but a mighty fine way to spend one's life, if one is running an army. Unfortunately this same opinion seems to be held by the majority of "brass' now employed in protecting us here and abroad.

The one bright light of the book was General Eisenhower's view of Rommel, and the enemy as a whole. He, for one, refused to join the "trade union," and time and time again refused to be a comrade-in-arms to the enemy. . . . "For me, World War II was far too personal a thing to entertain such feeling," Eisenhower said. The author, however, takes the view that the enemy general staff is really a friend to be admired and beaten; but always a friend. He indicates this same view is held by the majority of army men.

From Here

Speaking from the ranks, we can't go along with the idea that any enemy, regardless of his bravo and inteligence, is to be admired. Rommel was indeed a great general, but he was a supporter of Hitler.

As one of Hitler's henchman, Rommel is to be held responsible for ably fighting a war which took the lives of millions of men, American, British, Russian and German.

The author is careful to point out that Rommel was a professional soldier whose duty came first, and whose idea of right and wrong came second. This, the author believes, excuses him from the taint of Hitler. And while towards the end of the war Rommel begged the Germans to surrender, he continued to follow orders to fight. In a word, duty came above his sense of responsibility to his fellow men.

Still A Man

Despite service on the wrong side, despite defending principles offensive to the dignity of man, despite a limited range of interest and understanding, Rommel emerges a great man. There is no denying his military ability. In many battles he outwitted and outfought British and American generals. His personal disregard for danger and love of excitement is beyond the average man's comprehension. Even his death has a certain nobility.

This book should be read as a wonderful adventure story (if one can forget the rows of white crosses), and remembered as a lesson in the ways of the military mind. We don't often recommend books to everyone, but this is a work that is bound to be of interest to any man or woman who has served in the armed forces, or who has a son or daughter now in uniform.

While on the subject of the army, we note the marine booth on "top of the hill" isn't exactly doing a booming business. This is perhaps due to the marine's shift from those fancy dress uniforms to more dreary and dangerous battle garb.

Funerals are an every day event to Daly City residents who watch the one way trips down Mission Streets to Colma. We wonder if others have noticed that outside of the hearse and the first two cars, faces of other individuals in the "parade" often can be seen registering large, broad smiles.

Television, movies and comic comic magazines have pretty well dispelled the myths of youth. Take one young man who was confronted with the Easter Bunny brought eggs. "Ahh, that's crazy," the youngster declared, "eggs come out of cartons."

DEAR PARENTS

By Jane Keith

Last week I wrote an article praising the teachers for the particular job they had done in teaching my daughter to read.

It would seem, from comments since received from various friends, that such praise was not only mistaken, but constituted a minor crime against what is the latest (and of course best) thinking on the "School Situation."

From these conversations I learned that an article on "Underpaid School Teachers" is no mistake and commits no crime against "School Situation" thinkers. "More schools for our children" or "The three R's forever" would have been equally pleasing. But never must I admit that present methods used in the schools are workable or efficient!

Changes Needed

"What the school system needs is a complete reorganization from top to bottom," said one friend.

"All they do in school is play, play, play," said another.

"Maybe if they paid teachers a living wage they'd get some good ones for a change," cried the lady with a grudge against tenure. "Maybe then they could fire some of these old biddys then, too!"

"What all the children need these days is some good old fashioned discipline and a dose of straight reading, writing and arithmetic!"

These women were sincere in their criticisms. They were openly astounded to find me on the side of the present method of teaching reading, mathematics and spelling. Hadn't I read this article, this book? Didn't I believe in fundamentals?

Let me quote an article from "The Public and Education." This says what I would like to say. It is my opinion, also!

"So determined is a group of self-styled fundamentalists in opposing any effort on the part of American public schools to augment the teaching of reading, writing and arithmetic with anything resembling social behavior or the art of earning a living that their enthusiasm for stagnation is fast approaching sabotage."

Free Foundation

"The public school is the foundation of a free America. It should teach children to read; it should teach children to write; it should teach children to do sums. But above al lit should teach children to think.

"This may be treason in the minds of many who accuse the present public school system with frittering away the time of its students with non-essentials. If those who bleat the loudest about the lack of training provided in fundamentals would visit the schools and learn first hand what is going on, perhaps they would have the decency to blush a pale pink at least. Actually the "three R's" are being taught better today than ever before. But all the pedagogical skill in the world cannot make perfect spellers, readers, grammarians and mathematicians out of every child that is poured into the public school system."

It is true that we need more schools, better wages for teachers, better discipline at school and at home. Some changes may be needed in school curriculum. Our greatest and most present need, however, is the working—not talking—interest of parents in their local schools, . . . and in their children!

PUFF AND THE EASTER BUNNY

By Jane Keith

The March wind blew leaf patterns in the air and the sun was bright. The day breathed excitement as if it waited for something to happen. Puff watched and listened; she waited—but nothing, no, absolutely nothing happened until she was ready to go home.

Then she heard the voices. They were mocking and not very nice voices, with a rhythm that rose and fell monotonously as Puff drew closer to them.

"Hey, hey, go away. Little Bunny wants to lay," sang one high, sily voice—then a whole chorus.

"Lay What?"

"Lay an EGG!" howled the silly voice.

"Ha, Ha, Ha," shouted the chorus with so wicked a laugh that Puff crouched down close to the earth and watched almost without breathing.

The Rabbits ringed him with mocking tread—

They trampled a ring in the forest bed—

They shouted with a laughter and pointed in scorn—

(Oh, why was that poor little Bunny born?)

That poor little Bunny with fur of felt—

With candy eyes that his tears will melt—

Al trembling there in the forest grass—

(Oh, shame that this should come to pass!

"What is the matter?" said Puff to the Bunny.

He quivered and sobbed, "They think I'm funny!

I want an egg all colored bright

To sihne through grass in the morning light.

A COLORED EGG, not any other—

And I wish to be THE EGG'S OWN MOTHER!"

Then up spoke and old and grey furred sire.

"This Bunny thing has roused our ire—

Because he cannot acquire the habit

Of being an honest forest rabbit!

He speaks of EGGS—with him to LAY them.

Such goings on will lead to mayhem!"

He glared at Puff. His long ears towered.

Once more his oratory flowered.

"HUMANS, IN SEARCH OF STUFF CALLED MONEY

HAVE TURNED HIM INTO AN EASTER BUNNY!

Suddenly Puff was all alone: tears in her eyes, her heart a stone. She cried until her eyes were red the sight of that Bunny in her head.

And not until Easter morning came did the world to Puff seem quite the same—for there was the EGG and there was the BUNNY and Puff laughed and laughed just as though it was funny!

BAYSHORE VISITACION VALLEY

By Bernice Hendryx JUniper 4-6449

The teen-agers Cancer Benefit dance, scheduled for March 31, at the Voters League Hall, promises to be a popular affair.

The kids have named the shindig "Floatin' Notes." I might add too, that they are doing the whole job themselves. They have put out their own posters, raised the money for their soft drinks and hot dogs, and decorations.

It is a come one, come all affair for teen agers. It isn't a club or particular group, and it is hoped that teen-agers from the valley will turn out in full force. A substantial number of adults have agreed to be on hand, and the youngsters are very pleased about it. All the proceeds will go to the Cancer Drive.

Easter morning services at the Bayshore Baptist Church will be "Gardens Of Life." Easter evening service will be "Convincing Witnesses." There will be presentations by the church choir at both services. In addition, there wil be a special presentation by the Bible School children and teachers at 9:30 Eastern morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Club

The Mr. and Mrs. Club picnic and Easter Egg Hunt for members and friends, will be held at Flood Park. A pot luck lunch, and fun, games and prizes for the small fry. If the sun is shining that is.

The Cub Scouts held a paper drive in Bayshore last Monday and Tuesday. They colected two tons of paper, which wasn't a bad haul on short notice.

Tickets for the Scout O Rama, to be held at the Cow Palace May 4 and 5, are on sale now. It will be a big show, and an interesting one. The youngsters are selling tickets from door to door now, and if you contemplate going to the show, you are urged t buy your tickets now. All the tickets that the kids can sell before April 4 are important. They can keep 20 per cent of the sale price of the ticket for their local treasury.

Cubs Meet

A Cub Pack meeting for parents will be held March 30, at 7:30 p.m. in the Bayshore School Auditorium. The theme will be "Getting Acquainted Around the World." Parents of Cubs are urged to attend.

The 17th District Convention will be held March 29, at the Central Eelementary School in San Carlos. Local PTA members are asked to go.

We are soon to have another Bayshore Eelection. Two members are to be elected to our Fire Commission on April 2.

Eric Carlyle and Fred Albee, the two members whose term of office expires, will not run again. Instead, the names on your ballot will be Ed Haines, Les Parker, F. Barbara, and John Lawson.

This promises to be a quiet election. At the present reading, there is no indication that there will be any name-calling, mud slinging, or downright libel flung about. Not in print at any rate, and even then, it's tough to try to prove it ain't so.

Libel Suit

The quiet here is as it should be. First things should always come first, and unless memory fails me, we still have a libel suit hanging fire that resulted from more or les heated politics at the last Fire Board election. Many times these things are so intangible that it isn't easy to find out what is right, and more important, what can be proved.

Ho hum—things are really dull when we have to go back a year for our excitement in Bayshore.

There are still a rather large number of measles in Bayshore, with a few cases of chicken pox thrown in for good measure. Easter outings are being regretfully laid aside by many parents, while they take temperatures and watch spots.

BEAUTY—News & Views

By TONI WOODWARD—ANS Staff Writer

FRESH AS SPRING . . . Nature's heralds of spring beauty are "bustin' out" all over. And lovely ladies are clasping them to their bosoms, pinning them on spring topcoats, clipping them in their hair and arranging them in great bowls on the dining room table. Of course, the beauty heralds are fresh flowers of spring. Now more than ever flowers are playing a personal role. According to Alyn Wayne, stylist of the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Ass'n, this spring's beauty colors are derived from the natural hues of pink roses, and the gentle pastels of the iris, lilac and sweet pea.

Fresh beauty is the keynote of this year's glamour parade, says Wayne. Every charming lady from sixteen to points west can make the years fade away with the aid of nature's own beauty treatment. Fresh flowers carry that indefinable extra that comes with every great original. Take this prescription for spring beauty from stylist Wayne of FTD: First, take a walk in the fresh spring air, then stop in at your favorite florist and have him make you a corsage or floral hairpiece, next, with your beauty toned up by fresh air and fresh flowers take your magic glow before the eyes of your husband or sweetheart. If his eyes don't light up and say "Tilt," he needs a dose of vitamins. The secret is simply in fresh charm—your fresh beauty and the delightful color accent of fresh flowers.

YOUNG AS SPRING. When your birthdays number "21 plus," your skin need not give the secret away, if you take a jar of Pond's Dry Skin Cream into your confidence. For the natural oils decrease as your birthdays roll on, so stay "young as spring" by replenishing these oils. This homogenized cream breaks up the lanolin (it's the lanolin that does the job) into minute particles to make its rich emollience more readily available to your skin. It also does wonders for tender or chapped skin. BUT, if you're worried about spending hours and hours on such a project . . . RELAX . . . just three minutes nightly (NIGHTLY — not every now and then) will do the trick.

NEW AS SPRING! . . . Is your hair dye or color rinse growing out? There is an ingenious jumbo hair pencil created by a famous family-firm of hair specialists, especially to disguise that growing-out tinted or dyed hair or to cover those first scattered gray locks. It comes in six natural shades; light, medium or dark brown, blonde, auburn or black and can be toned down with tissue or washed out with shampoo. It is easily applied by just dipping the pencil in warm water and stroking it over the discolored hair line or graying hairs — is so safe that it is suggested for eyebrows as well, and does not affect permanents, dyes or any hair treatment. "Two slightly different shades of hair pencils are advisable for an impossible-to-detect job" say Ogilvie Sisters who created this hair pencil. "Women tell us it is the most important $1 item on their dressing tables today." Hair "changes" are not frowned upon nowadays as they were in Grandma's day but that tell-tale hair line which appears between beauty appointments is frowned upon, not only by the gal whose problem it is but also by that tall-dark-and-handsome one who has a bird'seye view. Confidentially, we're told that men are as interested in this one as are women.

One-Third of National Fund Used To Assist Members Of Armed Forces

"With our Armed Forces increased to three and a half million men, the Red Cross has to expand its activities to serve that larger military force," Dan Minto, Chairman of the local chapter said today.

"It is estimated by government and Red Cros sofficials," he continued, "that one-third of the eighty-five million dollars which is the 1951 National Red Cross fund goal, will have to be spent in necessary services to the Armed Forces. According to the latest reports there are seventy Red Cross Field Directors and other personnel with our fighting units in Korea, in addition to the hundreds stationed at military instalhe said.

lations and in military hospitals,"

On the local level, Minto pointed out, the Home Service department of the San Mateo County Red Cross chapter carries on much of the "service to the Armed Forces" program. It processes 375 cases a month, almost double the number handled in peacetime. It aids local servicemen, veterans, their families and dependents.

Jone's Case

Pfc. John Jones has been sent overseas and his allotment check to his wife and three small children has not come through. There is no food in the house, and no money left. But the Red Cross will help Mrs. Jones. It will provide money for food and rent until the allotment check tangle is straightened out. It will even help to hasten the unwinding of the red tape.

Later on, Mrs. Jones becomes critically ill. Her husband applies for leave to come home. Through the local Red Cross, Jones' commanding officer verifies the necessity for granting the leave and the Red Cross aids in getting Pfc. Jones home as fast as possible. This hypthetical case is quite typical Minto pointed out.

Since the outbreak of hostilities, he said, one to four cases a day,

Some 75 guests showed up on both days to wish the couple well, and "bless" the new home with glasses of various brews.

OBSERVE EASTER -- NOT A NEW HAT

Easter, the observance of the Resurrection of Christ, is traditionally a time for Christians to reaffairm their faith.

Churches throughout Daly City, of every sect, will hold special Easter services this Sunday. Pastors will note many new faces among the congregation . . . faces which appear dutifully twice a year (usually again on Christmas) more out of habit than any reason of faith or understanding.

Although it may not be Christian, a good many of the new members, and a few of the old, will be at church to see just what Mrs. John Jones can afford to buy in the way of a new outfit. The real meaning of the day will be lost amongst a flurry of new hats, excited chatter and plans for a ham dinner.

This is not to say a new Easter outfit is out of place Sunday, no more than gift giving is at Christmas. However, it would be interesting to know how many persons actually are at Church to celebrate the miracle that was the Ressurrection of Christ.

In a world wrought with indecision and doubt the meaning of the life of Christ, as well as His death on the Cross, is a firm rock to which we can all cling. Christ offered the Way, but the world refused to follow. Twice a year it is good to recall the principles of Christianity as exemplified by the life of Christ, ..It is unfortunate that the same principles are not remembered and followed 365 days out of the year.

However, when the regular congregation members and the "duty bound men and women" see fit to spend an hour in church their attention should be turned to Christianity, and not Mrs. Jones' spring bonnet.

This Sunday go to church . . . but go to worship Christ; not the material glory of new clothes and idle conversation.

WHERE ARE THE TENANTS?

Daly City councilmen, according to Mayor Paul Green, expressed favor this week in abolishing rent controls in Daly City.

A hearing on the subject will be held at 8 o'clock Monday evening, March 26, at City Hall, 75 Wellington Avenue. It is expected that after the hearing the council will rule one way or the other on rent controls.

Last Monday evening 15 landlords expressed their desire to have the ceilings abolished. Not one tenant appeared to either agree to or oppose the landlords' demands. From this the council could only suppose that the majority of tenants were either in favor of abolishing controls, or didn't care one way or the other.

Past experience has shown that rent controls both on a local and national scene are of utmost importance to many people. Regardles of how you stand o nthe question, the council would like to hear your views.

Here is a golden opportunity to take part in the democratic way of life. Apathy on your part will result in a decision by five men and 15 landlords who supposedly represent the majority because you failed to have yourself heard next Monday evening.

There are several hundred rental units in Daly City. Not only is this a meeting to show whether or not you are interested in democracy, but the result of that meeting, one way or the other, is bound to cost you dollars.

Let's see the majority of Daly City tenants and landlords represented at next Monday night's meeting.

THE FLU AND BUS SHELTERS

This city, along with the majority of communities in California, is just recovering from an epidemic of influenza.

It may be a little far fetched to say lack of bus shelters brought on many cases of flu, but there is no denying thta exposure to wind and cold didn't help the commuters to fight the disease.

Sometime ago we started a campaian to erect a few shelters at vital bus stops in Daly City. Several persons, including two councilmen, expressed an interest in the proposition. However; like so many other minor things which are of interest to a majority, the plan died. The flu epidemic is good enough reason to agai nstart pounding on the city's doors for bus shelters.

As pointed out a month ago, cost of these shelmeters for less than a month.
ters is as low as $300 to $500 . . . the take of parking

Now that the city is planning next year's budget, we would like to see some provision made for one to three shelters. A simple thing like a shelter may well cut down on the number of colds and flu cases next year.

State Agriculture Director Sounds Opposition To Food Price Controls

MARCH 22. (CNS)—State Director of Agriculture A. A. Brock today declared that any attempt to establish food price controls through rationing will lead only to a return of the black market.

He stated an artificial scarcity, denying many commodities to those who cannot afford to pay black market prices, would be a major result.

Brock said increases in farm prices, which are largely blamed for the higher cost of living, represent only a fraction of retail price advances.

No Reflection

The farmers' prices are not always reflected in consumer prices for there are so many intervening costs that the margin between profit and loss is small, Brock said.

Chief discrepancies between farm and consumer prices, Brock believes, is in parities which offer a wide differential in prices paid for wages, other operating costs, and those applicable to farm commodities.

In some instances wages have increased as much as 400 per cent against a markup in prices of 250 per cent.

Food prices are admittedly up, Brock said, but not to the extent one would be made to believe. Taking the market basket, which contains most farm commodities, as an example it cost 102 per cent more in 1950 than it did in 1949 and 47 per cent more than in 1929.

Doubled

workers received two and one-half

On the other hand, industrial times what they were paid in 1939 and twice what they received in 1929.

Workers were spending 19 per cent of their income in 1950 for the same foods they consumed from 1935 to 1939 but they actually spent 26 per cent because they were eating better—more expensive meats and other luxuries that they did not buy during the depression years.

Another story in relative costs, declares Brock, is in the number of Hours worked. A man had to work 7.6 hours in 1929 to purchase a basket of food, 4.5 hours in 1939, and 4.4 hours last year.

But again parity enters the picture. White collar workers have not enjoyed the same pay increases as industrial labor and they are finding it more expensive to buy food than in the earlier decades. Until parities are equalized, some will continue to feel the pinch.

OLD HOLLYWOOD HAND

By RIDGELY CUMMINGS

Two weeks n Hollywood makes me an old hand.

I know now that Hollywood Boulevard is north of Sunset and that Vine is east of Highland. That's basic orientation.

I've seen Douglas Fairbanks Jr., who nowadays is introduced without the junior, and was surprised to note that he is not as tall as I am but much more handsome. He's about five ten, slender, with a sensitive face and a nervous gesture of fingering his tie knot and brushing back with the palm of his hand his light brown hair, greying at the temples.

Hilton Seen

James Hilton I've seen twice and heard about innumerable times. He's so busy promoting his new novel, "Morning Journey," and handling his radio chores he is probably courting a nervous breakdown.

I have the greatest respect for the Hilton who wrote "Lost Horizon" but it is eifficult to realize he is the same man who stands before the microphone and spouts inanities about Hallmark greeting cards. The old boy was wearing expensive sport clothe and heavy horn rimmed glasses both times I observed him.

Rooney Action

One of my more interesting experiences with celebrities was watching Mickey Rooney in action. He currently is playing the role of Andy Hardy in a continuous radio drama and a friend who had passes invited me to watch the broadcast.

It was one of those affairs that are recorded in advance for release the following week. We had front row seats in the theatre.

First an announcer came out to "warm us up" by relating some moth-eaten jokes. Then he introduced Lewis Stone, who plays Judge Hardy, Mickey's father, in the series.

Mr. Stone, whom I remember as a mature Lothario and that dates me, looked aged and dignified. He introduced the other members of the cast, whose names I've forgotten, and then the Mick.

Jet Propelled

Mickey burst out of the wings as if jet-propelled, jumped down off the stage and circulated through the audience shaking hands. He was fast on the repartee and galvanized the fans, drawing laughs even with old chestnuts like: "So you're from Boston. Well, well, how've you bean?"

Master Rooney was wearing beige slacks, a yellow shirt and a tie which he soon discarded. He clowned all during the half hour show, mugging and taking falls, but never missed a cue and read his lines with more spirit and accuracy than those who stood stiffly before the microphones.

As he finished with each page of script Mickey tossed it out in the audience. I was within range so caught a couple and noticed they were mimeographed, with each line numbered, and pock-marked with pencilled revisions.

Laugh, Laugh

At these recorded broadcasts the audience is expected to laugh and applaud on cue in lieu of paying admission. When this particular show was over the producer decided that in several spots the laughter was deficient and called for re-readings of lines seven and eight on page ten and so forth.

Poor Mickey said his script was out in row seven and various functionairies had to scurry around and find him a new script. Then he cherubically announced that it wasn't his lines that needed repetition, which was true for he drew hearty laughs.

The other actors repeated the specified lines and Mickey lead the cheering and applause, the audience responding with delighted obedience to his impudent signals.

More profound thoughts next week but meanwhile don't misunderstand me. I think I'm going to like Hollywood.

OBJECTION SOUNDED TO CAP & GOWN

An Open Letter To All Concerned:

I would like to state my views on what the Crocker 1951 graduating class should, or should not wear. I am not asking that my views be either accepted or rejected, but please think them over.

Are we putting our children one against the other? They truly reflect our views and carry them back into their class rooms.

Graduation is one of the memories that our children will carry with them for many years to come, and we can make that memory one of personal pride in a job well done, or a memory of a class divided against itself . . . the choice is ours.

These children have seen little enough of calmness and serenity in their lives, let's not be a part of making this, their big day, also one of confusion.

There is the idea that complete new outfits at this time of high prices may be more than some families can afford. That idea is right, but can't we be direct.

The big thrill is graduation itself. Surely most children have some best outfit that can be worn. Need it be new, if it clean and neat?

Let the children have their class colors, by all means. Instead of colors in a certain garment, let it be of the children's own choice; say a necktie for the boys and a hair ribbon for the girls.

Please give them back the present they would most want. . . . a proud, united group of parents.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Hacken

Eagles To Honor Members Enlisted In Armed Forces

In honor of all Eagles in the Armed Forces throughout the world, and particularly local members, and to commemorate the sixth anniversary of the Eagles Memorial Foundation, Colma-Vista Grande Aerie 1848, Fraternal Order of Eagles, will hold a special party in the Aerie Hall on Saturday night, March 24.

A gala occasion is being planned by the Committee headed by Dell Fehl, and all members are urged to attend. Since the party is to be in the nature of "Hard Times," those attending are expected to appear in appropriate costume or in military garb.

Decorations will carry out the patriotic theme, appropriate refreshments will be served, and several surprises are being planned to insure considerable fun for all.

Members of the local Eagles Aerie now in the Armed Forces who will be honored are: Hubert Stevens, Charles Griffith, Cecil Hatchel, Harold Hight, Robert Thompson in the Navy; Frank Tringali, and Raymond Florence in the Marine Corps; Joseph Castro, Lloyd Babe, Kenneth Beckwith, John Hickey, Robert Meritt, James Pederson, Paul Telovi in the Army; and William Reardon in the Coast Guard.

In addition to honoring the servicemen, the occasion also is to celebrate the sixth anniversary of the founding of the Eagles Memorial Foundation which was created during the last World War to take care of the children of Eagles who lost their lives during the war.

Through contributions raised by Eagles Aeries throughout the United States, Canada, Hawaii, Guam, and the Philippines, hundreds of Eagle orphans are receiving medical and dental care, a guaranteed education through college or trade schools, and other benefits from the Memorial Foundation.

Local members who do not want to miss an outstanding social evening will do well to remember the date and to appear in costume at the Eagles Hall at 3342 San Jose Avenue, on Saturday night, March 24.

State Events Last Week

The Governor back from convalescing at Arrowhead Springs, declared he had been informed the most likely means of an attack on this country would be the planting of atomic time bombs off the Pacific coast. He declared this points up even more the need for the federal government giving the states a pattern for civil defense.

The Legislature returned to Sacramento and buckled down to work. Assembly ways and means committee reported the governor's billion nineteen million dollar budget to the floor of the house where it was set for a special order of business and the Senate Finance Committee prepared to hold hearings on the document, with chairman Ben Hulse declaring it should be cut by $27 mililon if it is to be considered a "balanced" budget. An assembly sub-committee wrangled over a rural electrification bill and wound up a several hour hearing by putting the bill over for further hearings. The measure would allow federal lines into areas not served by public utilities.

Miscellaneous: A strong push for four-laning highway 40 beteen Sacramento and Reno will be made in Washington by Assemblyman Francis Lindsay; Director of Agriculture A. A. Brock said food rationing, if put into effect by the federal government, would merely create black markets and deny essentials to people who couldn't afford to pay high prices. Extensive probe into California's adult education system was promised by Assemblyman Robert Kirkwood, of Santa Clara county.

Irish Clubs Hold Easter Ball

The annual Easter Week Ball of the Irish Republican Clubs of San Francisco will be held as usual this year in the K.R.B. Hall, 1133 Mission Street, on Easter Sunday Night, March 25.

This year marks the thirty fifth anniversary of the Irish Rising of Easter Week 1916 and is in keeping with the policy of all Irish Republicans, both in Ireland and in America, to honor the re-awakening of the Irish National Movement for complete independence.

The committee on arrangements, with James V. O'Sullivan as chairman, has completed the arrangements to afford the patrons a night of enjoyable dancing, featuring American popular numbers as well as the polka sets, jigs, reels and hornpipes of the Old Country.

Assisting on the committee are Jack Murphy, Terry Sweeney, Dan Griffin, Jerry Boyle, Ed McGovern and Tom Farrell.

Adult Education Program Studied

MARCH 22. (CNS)—An extensive investigation into California's adult educational program to determine whether it is on a firm financial basis and whether it is properly placed in the state's school system was anncunced here today.

Assemblyman Robert E. Kirkwood, Santa Clara county, chairman of a sub-committee of the assembly ways and means committee appointed to make the investigation, said after a meeting of his committee that virtually all phases of adult education would be checked.

"Whether we will be able to complete the job during this legislative session is a question," Kirkwood said. "It may be necessary to ask an interim committee to study this broad subejte."

Kirkwood is aided on his committee by Assemblymen L. Stewart Hinckley, San Bernardino county, and Lloyd Lowrey, Rumsey.

"We do not yet know all the directions this inquiry will take," Kirkwood stated, "but persons interested in adult education can rest assured there will be no attempt on the part of the committee to eliminate the program.

"We do not plan to go into individual courses offered in adult education, but may inquire as to the possibility of obtaining some standard guidance on the so-called 'fringe' courses from the State Department of Education as to whether the courses are necessary."

Kirkwood said the committee will seek to determine if the program is properly financed; if funds allocated for adult education are being used for other purposes; whether the program should be under the university or the State Department of Education, and other overall matters pertaining to the continuation classes for persons who desire to add to their schooling.

Judge Draper To Head County Cancer Fund Drive

The American Cancer Society's 1951 Cancer Crusade will open here April 1, it was announced today by Mr. George Dado, President of the San Mateo County Branch of the American Cancer Society.

Judge Murray Draper has been appointed campaign chairman for this county, Mr. Dado said.

A message of congratulation was received from Mr. Dado lauding Judge Draper for his contribution to cancer control in heading the drive in this county.

"Appointment of Judge Draper as Crusade chairman in San Mateo County will go far toward assuring success of this year's campaign," Mr. Dado stated.

Two Fold Task

"I know in accepting this responsibility you have committed your interest, talents and a large amount of your time to a job that is nothing les than saving lives," Mr. Dado continued.

"Your task is two-fold: one—the solicitation of funds to carry on the fight toward cancer control, and two—the promotion of an educational program that may well save lives of some of your friends and neighbors.

"All across the nation this attack on cancer will be launched April 1. The first objective is $14,565,000 to continue the programs of research, education and service to cancer patients. The second and immediate objective is the saving of as many as 70,000 persons who die of cancer needlessly every year.

Leading Role

"I know you must be proud to have an important role in this great work. Be assured that we are grateful in accepting your contribution of service to humanity."

In commenting on his appointment Judge Draper said, "I have accepted the chairmanship of the Cancer Crusade here only with the belief that I can depend on the energetic support of a great many people in this county.

"We are going to need a lot of help in reaching our twin objectives. We will need volunteers for key positions in seeking funds and the educational work. But most of all we will need the generous cooperation of the people of this county. I like to think that in asking this coperation, I am offering all of us here an opportunity of service that is both a duty and a privilege."

Junior Archers

Tournament; Future Events Planned

Last Arrow Shot Sunday in ABR

by Frank Bria

The last arrow of the ABR Junior six gold tournament was shot last Sunday, March 18.

We found a great many good shots in the bunch, and a group of new archers who are might interested in continuing archery.

Some of the scores for the complete shoot were very high. Here are the complete scores for the four week shoot:

First team, 5,253: Gene Whinnen, 1,404; John Childers, 1265; Herb Ayres, 1,217; Gary Baker, 1,367.

Second team, 4,111: Ronald Baker, 1,148; Ernest Hansen, 1,069; Tony Deffino, 1,055; Dennis Marc, 839.

Third team, 2,935: Carmen Bria, 921; Frank Bria Jr., 718; Robert Rich, 619; Dean Macari, 577.

Fourth team, 3,534: Diane Valintino, 1,029; Diane Doveley, 954; Peggy Holcomb, 709; Marilyn Whinnen, 842.

Now that the tournament is over, the Daly City Recreation Department and the Daly City Boys Club are going to continue to hold matches for the interested juniors at least once a month.

It has been suggested that a tournament fee be set, which could be pooled for prizes. This was suggested by the boys. Those with other suggestions are asked to call me, Frank Bria, at PLaza 5-1695, or write 250 Willits Street.

Next week we hope to anounce the date for our intermediate and senior shoot. All comers will be invited.

We certainly hope that the Junior shooters will take some of the top national honors.

OLPH Softball Team Takes Jeff 7 to 1

by Erle Johnson

The OLPH softball team looked very good in beating Jefferson 7-1 last Friday afternoon at Marchbanks Park.

The boys from Perpetual Help played in mid-season form and made only one error in the entire game. Joe Machado almost had a "no hitter" until Ranatore was successful in beating out a bunt. In the sixth inning, Figone got a single in the last inning to give Jefferson their two hits of the game.

The bunting and fast running of the OLPH team spelling victory for them as they were successful in driving seven runs across the plate. Ranatore and Figone were the losing pitchers for Jefferson. Murphy of OLPH got the only homerun of the game. Fontana played the best game in the field, making several beautiful catches and throws.

The regular league play will start next week on the return of the boys from Easter vacation. There are to be four teams entered in the league; these will be Jefferson, OLPH, and Colma "South" and Colma "North."

FORD WINS AGAIN!

V-8 TAKES FIRST PLACE IN CLASS "A"
1951 MOBILGAS ECONOMY RUN

Both Ford V-8 and SIX Deliver more than 25.9 miles per gallon

Gruelling 840-mile test proves Ford Economy

Again this year . . . it's high honors for Ford! In the most important economy trial for American stock model cars . . . the famous annual Mobilgas Economy Run . . . A Ford 100-h.p. V-8 equipped with Overdrive took first piace competing against all cars in its price class, making 54.587 ton-miles per gallon* and 25.994 miles per gallon. And its companion in quality, the new Ford SIX with Overdrive, was right up there with the winner. In fact, both cars averaged better than 25.9 miles per gallon.

Traditional Ford economy, for the second straight year, has been proved in open competition. Proved on the tough 840-mile grind from Los Angeles to the Grand Canyon . . . a course that included city traffic, below-sea-level desert heat and 7,000-foot mountain passes. Ford's Automatic Mileage Maker, standard equipment on all Ford V-8's and SIXES, contributed to this great achievement by squeezing the last mile out of every drop of gasoline.

Why not "Test Drive" the new Ford at your neighborhood Ford Dealer's? There's no better way to be convinced that "You can pay more but you can't buy better!"

*The AAA Contest Board determines the winner by a "ton-mile per gallon" formula to insure equal chance for all cars in each class regardless of size and weight. Ton-miles per gallon equals the car weight (including passengers) in tons, multiplied by number of miles travelled, divided by number of gallons of gasoline consumed.

Smog Control

Battle Looms In State Legislature Over Bills On Air Pollution Control

A major battle over bills strengthening air pollution control was in prospect today as Assemblyman Randal F. Dickey, Alameda, received word of opposition to measures he has before the state legislature.

Dickey said he expects powerful interests from the southern part of the state to oppose his measures, which provide for state research into the public health aspects of air pollution; provide for regional air pollution control in addition to county-wide control, and to provide for more rapid abatement of the critical smog conditions in Los Angeles county.

Crux of Fight

Crux of the disagreement, Dickey said, is the desire of Southern California, and particularly Los Angeles county, to retain present air pollution control measures.

The statutes at the present time permit any county in a "critical area" to take measures for control, through a county board. The Dickey bills would put control under the state's regional pollution boards, except in counties where control measures have already been activated.

Only three counties so far have taken steps to control air pollution, said Dickey, who is chairman of the assembly's interim committee on pollution. These are Los Angeles, Orange, and Santa Clara counties.

Regional BaBsis

The Alameda assemblyman said the San Francisco Bay Area has found it desirable to meet air pollution control on a regional basis, that is, to put such control in the hands of the pollution board which now serves San Francisco, San Mateo, San Mateo, Santa Clara, Alameda, Contra Costa, Solano, and Marin counties.

"This would enable the bay district to meet the pollution problem before it becomes acute," Dickey said. 'We can't see how the bill would affect Los Angeles, but nevertheless, we expect opposition."

Controversy already has developed as to whether or not air pollution control through Los Angeles' county board has accomplished any objectives. A report of the committee is expected to point out that pollution from new industries in the south has actually made the situation worse—in other words, new pollution occurs faster than controls over the older industries.

Growing Numbers

With the state's growing population and its trend toward new inmillions of automobiles, particulardustry, plus the waste from the ly in southern California, the trend toward air pollution is growing, Dickey said.

The very conditions that result in California's equable climate, Dickey said, prohibit cleansing of the air through natural wind currents. Pressures off the coast, and low winds along the coast, result in air poisons hanging over widely populated areas.

Purpose of the legislation, it was pointed out, is to permit anti-pollution boards to enforce rules and regulations against industrial pollution of the air. Cost of air pollution control is large, and as a result some opposition develops.

"Disposal of ever-increasing quantities of municipal and industrial wastes without damage to our air, water, or land," Dickey said, "presents a problem which must be solved and must be held constantly in check if California is to preserve the natural advantages which are the envy of the nation and world."

TALK OF THE TOWN

By DIANE DALY

Easter is perhaps the most significant and beautiful of all the religious holidays we observe. Coming in the spring, as it does, the awakening beauty of nature gives added meaning to the miracle of the Resurrection. After a week of holy meditation, with daily services in our local churches, this day is at hand. Reverently we all should direct our thoughts and prayers to the foot of the cross, for there the King of Glory died, there man's redemption was born. Easter is a promise and should be a dedication for every man, woman and child in our town.

The diversion of new clothes and Easter bonnets, to say nothing of the bounteous Easter bunny, will be relegated to its proper place, and it is hoped that the day will be a warm and Easter-egg-hunt-ish day, so that the kiddies can gather the Bunny's bundles without catastrophe.

If at all possible, you should take in the lovely Easter Flower Show being held currently at Macy's in downtown San Francisco. Under the direction of Podesta and Baldocchi, literally thousands of blooms have transformed the inside and outside of the store into an exotic garden. Lilies, azaleas, rhododendron and flowering trees of all kinds as well as tropical blooms, French Hydrangea, roses, camellias and varieties too numerous to mention are on display. The entire exhibit follows the theme of "Mobilize for Defense" with the accent on the Red Cross.

This week also has been one of vacation, and many of our localites have been going out of town and visitors coming in.

TEMPEST IN A TEA-POT:

Some fifty or more land-owners bordering one of the back roads in Colma, were thrown in somewhat of a panic to receive and read the impressive legal document which is a Summons—the Plaintiff being none other than the Stoneson Builders. An investment in the youth of America will bring you real dividends—so don't disappoint these courteous little fellows when they call — Selling tickets is the time a feller needs a friend!

MARKOVICH COMES UP THIRD TIME WINNER

Batting strictly in the "boy league," Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Markovich Monday became the proud parents of their third boy in as many years of married bliss.

The third boy came into the world at St. Francis Hospital weighing a good 8 pounds. The time of arrival was set at 2 p.m., and it was noted that the father collapsed shortly thereafter. "I should be used to this sort of thing by now, but I'm having trouble getting adjusted," Pete said.

The new lad was named after the old man, Peter . . . but the "junior" was erased by adding Lloyd as a middle name.

Mr. and Mrs. Markovich, who reside at 724 Washington Street, refused to comment today on whether or not they had given up hopes of every buying dresses instead of pants for their kids.

A Reader Calls For New Daly City Post Office

Daly City, Calif.
March 21, 1951
11:45 a.m.

Dear Sir:

This is being mailed from Daly City to prove to you that it takes at least two days to mail a letter from this city to anyone in the city. This is due to the fact that Daly City has no post office of its own, but only a branch of the San Francisco office. Therefore all mail must go down to the San Francisco Rincon Annex, sorted, and then sent back to Daly City.

(Ed. Note: The reader may be correct, but the letter he mailed The Record at 11:45 a.m. Wednesday, arived at our office at 8 a.m. Thursday . . . less than one day.)

Also, can't something be done about building an Ocean Front Highway along San Mateo and Daly City's ocean front. This could be similar to the ocean front highway in San Francisco from Cliff House to the zoo.

Thank you,
Property Owner.

ROOM 2

Raymond Johnson, from the Fifth Grade in Room 2, transferred last week to Alameda.

On Monday the children made attractive Easter Cards to send to their parents and relatives on Easter Sunday.

In Room 2, the Sixth Grade is studying about Canada. They were very much interested in the fact that there are no forts between Canada and the United States, but there is an International Peace Garden, twenty miles long. Workmen from both countries plant and maintain the flowers. In the center a stone tablet is carved with these words, "To God In His Glory—We Two Nations Dedicate This Garden, And Pledge Ourselves That As Long As Men Shall Live, We Will Not Take Up Arms Against One Another."

The Fifth Grade in Room 3 is ready to start their study of California Today. In this study we expect to become familiar with the industries, problems, and people of California as we know it.

The children have had an interesting study of the body processes involved in the digestion of food. This study included the digestive system, the respiratory system, and the circulatory system. Some very fine drawings were made in this study.

ROOM 4

The Sixth Grade in Room 4 has begun a large relief map of North America. This map will be made of salt and flour and will show the geographical features, rivers, lakes, mountains and deserts of the continent. This will be a committee project—one committee will draw the outline, another will build the model using the mixture of salt and flour, and the third group wil paint and label the map. The class is studying this continent stressing Canada and Alaska—Our Northern Neighbors.

ROOM 5

The Eighth Grade in Room 5 have learned that Utah was the thirty-sixth state to ratify the twenty-second amendment to the constitution. Over 4,000 amendments have been proposed. This shows how difficult it is to have an amendment adopted.

In arithmetic, the class is working on commission problems. One group has been finding the hypotenuse of a right triangle.

The students of the Seventh Grade in the afternoon session are learning the different kinds of angles. In order to measure these angles each student is making his own protractor.

Students Out On Spring Vacation

Beth Harrington of Millbrae, Gretchen Ashbaugh and Beverly Barnes of Belmont, Nancy Camp of Burlingame, and Marilyn Kristensen of San Mateo are San Mateo Junior College students who are representing the College "Y" at a "Y" conference in Los Angeles this week.

The conference has brought together students from California, Arizona, New Mexico, and Hawaii.

Closed this week for the annual spring vacation, the college and college adult center will resume work Monday. At that time the adult center will open its Spring quarter, starting some new sections, and enrolling new students. Adults already in attendance do not need to register.

President Charles S. Morris of the junior college was elected vice president of the American Association of Junior Colleges at the recent annual conference in Des Moines, Iowa. Previously he had served on the board of directors and as chairman of various committees.

The junior college sports groups have been enjoying a good season to date. The golf team and tennis squad both defeated the City College of San Francisco, the baseball team has continued winning practice games, having won ten to one loss, and the track squad defeated Sacramento paysee and then came in second in a four-team meet which was won by San Francisco State College. Menlo and Marin jaysees followed in order.

Sixteen students and a faculty member are making a bus trip to Death Valley this week, observing wild flowers and wild life, rock formations, and general points of interest. Mr. Sam Elkins, biology instructor, and Mrs. Elkins are conducting the trip.

MARIE'S AND PAT'S COFFEE SHOP was the scene of a double celebration last Saturday. First, all the Irishmen gathered to hail St. Patrick. Second, Marie and Pat served free sandwiches and coffee to mark their fifth year in business at 6005 Mission street. From the happy faces, it appears the food was up to the usual fine quality served at the popular Daly City restaurant. After the feed, the party shifted headquarters to the Players Club where there was dancing. (Photo by Myra)

Church of the Week

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church, located at 60 Wellington avenue, is the parish church for hundreds of Catholics throughout the Daly City area. The parish itself was first established here in 1925 and the first Mass was offered in the new church October 11, 1925.

First pastor of the church was the Rev. Father James Donohoe who served as parish priest here until 1939, to be succeeded by the present pastor, Rev. Father James Bergin.

The parish school was opened in September of 1933 and 450 students there are instructed by nine Sisters of St. Joseph of Orange. The new school building, opened in September of 1947, houses classes from kindergarten through the eighth grade.

Catechism classes are conducted also for children attending public schools and these are taught by both the priests and sisters. At present 222 children attend these classes.

This community religious appeal is being made jointly by our churches and the following public-spirited business and professional men and women ever striving to make our community a better place in which to live.

Jackson Dinner Speaker Announced

Jonathan Worth Daniels, former White House assistant to Presidents Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman, and nationally prominent newspaper editor and author, will be guest speaker of the 1951 Northern California Jefferson-Jackson Dinner here April 9.

The 49-year-old author of the best-selling biography of President Truman, "The Man From Independence," wired his acceptance yesterday to Thomas C. Lynch, San Francisco District Attorney, and chairman of the annual Democratic fund raising drive.

"We are extremely fortunate in securing a speaker of Mr. Daniels' stature," Mr. Lynch said. With his rich background in journalism, world affairs, and national politics, I known the address of Mr. Daniels here on April 9 at the Fairmont Hotel will be an inspiration to northern California Democrats."

The dinner is open to guests who contribute $25.00 or more to the Jefferson-Jackson Committee. Invitations may be obtained by communicating with committee headquarters, Room 214, Balboa Building, San Francisco, or by telephoning DOuglas 2-2766.

This year's main speaker is the son of the late Josephus Daniels, who served as Secretary of the Navy under Woodrow Wilson. He presently is editor of the Raleigh, North Carolina, News & Observer and Democratic National Committeeman from North Carolina.

Installation of officers will be held at the regular meeting, April 12.

Cancer Film Aids Fight on Disease

"For the first time we have a precise and workable method for controlling a major form of cancer."

That's a physician's comment on the film, "Breast Self-Examination," now being shown to women's organizations throughout the country. Produced by the American Cancer Society and the National Cancer Institute, the film teaches women how to help detect what may be a symptom of the disease in its early and curable stages. A lump—which is often a sign of breast cancer — can be detected when it is very small by self-examination.

Half of the 50,000 women who develop breast cancer in 1951 may die within five years because of tardy diagnosis. With widespread self-examination, however, as many as 90 per cent of the cases could be saved. This film is being widely shown during the 1951 Cancer Crusade.

Your dollars help guard your family. Strike back! Give to conquer cancer.

Association Calls For Increased Sales Tax For State And Cities

Although legislative leaders contemplate a 1951 session without additional taxes, the powerful County Supervisors Association of California recommends a broadening of the tax base for additional subventions to both cities and counties.

In a statement of policy just issued, the association says it will sponsor and support legislation enabling counties to levy a one per cent sales tax, allowing a half cent credit having such a tax, or to increase the state sales tax to four per cent with the additional cent earmarked for counties, with a similar credit to cities.

..... Tax Push .....

In the event such legislation is not obtainable at this session, the supervisors will push for a tax of two cents a package on cigarettes, to be collected by the state, with the entire net revenue earmarked for subventions to the counties.

Such revenue, the association says, is necessary to assist counties in assuming the growing burdens of welfare costs and civil defense.

The statement of policy made by the supervisors association, which is an organization that gets back to the grass roots as far as members of the legislature are concerned, concerns not only taxation, but other issues before the legislature as well.

Pattern Set

The Supervisors will continue to cooperate with the governor and the Office of Civil Defense to further development of a sound, sensible and realistic approach to this problem, the statement said. So far, the civilian defense program has not been mapped, and legislators have called on the federal government through resolution to set the pattern the state is supposed to follow.

As to highways the supervisors will oppose any substantive changes in the Collier-Burns Highway Act, particularly with regard to allocation features of the act. They will also urge the federal government to grant priorities for essential highway production if this becomes necessary because of restricted development.

As far as revenues are concerned, the supervisors plan to protect the counties' yield from shared revenues and centrally collected taxes, such as the "in lieu" motor vehicle and liquor license tax.

Change Asked

They also want a change in the law which will require the state rather than the county to pay costs of execution of warrants issued on request of the California highway patrol.

The problems of Social Welfare, according to the supervisors, call for new legislation to adjust county participation in all categorical aid to a uniform $5 per month per person.

At the present time, old age security recipients have county aid of $6.43; need blind, $13.75; partially self-upporting blind, $14.17; needy children, $24 for first child and $12 for each additional child; needy disabled, (if program is adopted), $6.43

Colorado Springs has been described as "the most popular tourist center in the Rocky Mountains."

The association will oppose the enactment of a new category for the needy disabled, a move which was recommended by the legislative auditor and the legislative budget committee over the governor's recommendation for such aid.

Lost Blarney Stone "Found"

Over 75 members of the San Mateo County Division of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, gathered in San Carlos, witnessed the return of the Blarney Stone that mysteriously disappeared from the George Reilly dinner last year.

The occasion was the annual St. Patrick's day luncheon and election of officers for ensuing year. Elected to carry on for the sons of Erin for the coming year were:

President: Jos. O'Malley relected. Attorney in Burlingame; Vice-Pres.: John Kennealley, Redwood City; Secretary: James Gillen, Redwood City; Treasurer: Roderick O'Meara, Milbrae; Guard: Daniel Newell—San Bruno; Luncheon Cairman: Daniel J. O'Connell, San Mateo.

Featured speaker, Mr. Edward Healey, Georgetown University, who reviewed the Historical background of Saint Patrick.

Save Your Jobless Pay!

BY ROSS GRAHAM

(Editor's Note: This is the last of a series of ten special articles.)

Restore Tax

Before that would happen, the legislature undoubtedly would restore the tax on workers, which was shifted from unemployment insurance in 1946 to disability, or sickness, insurance.

Then, instead of paying 1 per cent of their salaries as at present into the disability insurance fund, the workers of California would be paying at least 2 per cent, the additional 1 per cent going to restore the unemployment insurance reserve fund.

Workers would not like that. Their "take-home" pay already has been reduced by various taxes to the point of widespread complaints.

Solution

The 1951 legislature has the solution for this dangerous situation and if the workers as well as employers in each assembly and state senatorial district make their wishes known to their legislators, the legislature can save the unemployment insurance fund.

Three things must be done by the legislature.

It must tighten up the "voluntary quit" regulations, so that a person cannot quit a job voluntarily, and get unemployment insurance, unless he has a good reason directly connected with his job.

It must correct the present law which permits the filing of "lag-quarter" claims, whereby a person can loaf on unemployment insurance a total of 12 months out of an 18-month period.

Tighten Rules

It must tighten up the rules governing the persons getting unemployment insurance payments when they are sent out by the Commission on calls from prospective employers. The racketeers now find it easy to avoid taking such jobs by making an unfavorable impression on the prospective employers.

There are many other deficiencies in the unemployment insurance act which should be corrected. Efforts will be made to correct some of these other deficiences during the 1951 session of the legislature.

But the correction of these three things alone would make it possible for the unemployment insurance fund balance to be increased during the year rather than to continue to lose money faster than it is collected.

Fund Down

During 1949 the fund went down $118,000,000.

During 1950, despite the high employment, it is estimated the fund will hav eshown another $23,000,000 deficit.

The chiseling referred to above is estimated to take at least $75,000,000 yearly from the fund. Some estimate even more.

Simple arithmetic will give the answer.

The legislature can give the remedy.

Only the people, by making their wishes known to the members of the legislature, can assure that these needed reforms are made.

It is up to the workers and employers alike.

READLIGHT GLARE

Headlight glare has caused many an automobile accident. When aproaching another car on the highway at night, lower your headlight beam, urges the California State Automobile Association. It's not only a question of courtesy, it's the law.

March 29 Deadline For Filing OPS Ceiling Charts

MARCH 22. — Answers to frequent inquiries being received on Ceiling Price Regulation 7 were issued today by the Regional Office of Price Stabilization to aid retailers of consumer soft and durable goods in setting up price charts as required by the regulation.

(OPS defines "consumer soft and durable goods" to include the following classes of merchandise: apparel and apparel accessories; textile, plastic and rayon yardage; household textile goods; drapery hardware; window shades, blinds and awnings; household furniture, except appliances; floor coverings; textile wall coverings; lamps and lampshades.)

Last Day

Retailers are reminded that March 29 is the deadline date by which they must file ceiling price charts with their District Office of Price Stabilization and they must start pricing under CPR 7 not later than March 29.

The margin-percentage reporting form (Public Form 3) must accompany price charts filed by the retailer. The OPS will not issue any special form for use by retailers in reporting price lists. However, OPR 7 contains detailed samples to aid retailers in preparing their individual charts.

Every effort is being made to get copies of the regulation and amendments, as well as the margin-reporting form, into the hands of all retailers through local chambers of commerce and trade associations, the Regional OPS states.

Get Copies

Any retailer who does not have copies of the regulations, amendments or margin-reporting form should get in touch immediately with the local Chamber of Commerce. The District Office of Price Stabilization serving this area is located at 870 Market St., San Francisco. Telephone KL. 2-2350.

VOLTAGE REGULATOR

Your car's voltage regulator should be checked regularly, advises the California State Automobile Association. Modern repair shops have precision equipment for this purpose.

ROTATING TIRES

Rotating the tires on your car can increase their life by as much as fifty per cent, advises the California State Automobile Association. This should be done every two or three thousand miles.

These spicy, sugar-coated hot cross buns have been associated with religious customs since 1,000 B. C., according to the American Bakers Association. Originally offered to the gods of the early civilizations, the buns were adapted by Christians and eaten on the Lenten holiday of Good Friday. Today, the hot cross buns have lost their religious significance, but are still eaten during the entire Lenten period.

Studebaker Stars In Annual Gas Economy Run

Sustaining the Studebaker reputation for building cars that are efficiently-powered and thrifty in gasoline usage, three 1951 model Studebakers covered themselves with glory in the Mobilgas Economy Run to the Grand Canyon, according to William S. Sweeney and Sons, 6800 Mission street.

The three cars—Champion, Commander V-8 and Land Cruiser V-8—finished one, two, three for highest actual fuel mileage among the 26 cars of the standard classes, it is pointed out by Mr. Sweeney.

In addition to the sensational economy showing in actual gasoline mileage made by these cars, according to official releases by the AAA Contest Board which supervised the Run, the Commander, driven by Stan Van Horn of Inglewood, Calif., won Class B on the "ton-mile" basis of scoring.

"The ordinary motorist, who may not understand ton-miles but wants to know just how far a car will go on a gallon of gasoline," said Sweeney, will be keenly interested in the Studebaker figures:

Studebaker Champion, driven by Vic Del Coma of Long Beach, Calif., 28.621 miles per gallon; Commander V-8, driven by Van Horn, 28.001 m.p.g., Land Cruiser, driven by Bill Heimberger of Hollywood, 27.644 m.p.g.

Studebaker, with its colorful "Scottish thrift" scheme—plaid caps, bagpipers, Scottish lassies, etc.—really "stole the show" in more ways than one at the Grand Canyon, according to post-Run reportgs. And Studebaker people—factory officials, dealers and others—have expressed themselves as "more than happy" over the economy records set by all three cars.

WHAT THEY READ IN HOLLYWOOD

By Ridgely Cummings

The flu bug has been making the rounds in Hollywood lately and as a result I'm able to give you a brief glimpse of life as it is reported on a movie capitol newspaper.

It's not as glamorous as one might think.

One of the first things I did when I came to town three weeks ago was to put in an application for a job on the Hollywood Citizen-News.

A couple of nights later I went to a literary soiree and met another job-hunting journalist. We compared notes and I mentioned that I had been talking with Harlan Palmer, Jr., the C-N managing editor.

"How did you arrange that? I wasn't able to get past the receptionist," my acquaintance said.

Mortal Enemies

"Receptionist and secretaries are mortal enemies of the unemployed. They are paid to save their boss the pain of saying no."

"But how did you get by her?" he persisted. "She told me they had a long waiting list of applicants. All the screen writers who have been laid off either opened up public relations offices or are trying to get on the papers. What did you do?"

"Cased the joint and then nodded and walked by her like I knew where I was going. The city editor, Harold Hubbard, told me they hadn't hired a man in six months but that it wouldn't do any harm to talk with young Palmer, the boss."

"And you got to see him?"

"Sure. He was very pleasant. Said he would keep me in mind."

My acquaintance shook his head enviously and told me about his fruitless efforts to get past the movie studio guards.

Relief Man

Mr. Palmer must have kept me in mind all right, for when the flu laid low two of his regular staffers I got an early morning phone call asking if I could get to work at 8 a.m.

I could. I became a relief rewrite man.

Contrary to my fond hopes, I didn't get to interview a single movie star.

The Citizen-News is an afternoon paper with a daily paid circulation of 41,000 plus a couple of hundred thousand circulation for a shopping news that is distributed free. I really ought to check these figures with the A.B.C., which I haven't done, but anyway that is what I was told by a desk mate.

That would make it a bigger operation than the two leading papers in Phoenix, where I recently put in some time, but the city room atmosphere was strictly unpretentious and homey.

First Chore

My first chore the first day was writing obituaries. There's not much chance of exhibiting a literary flair there so I concentrated on making them serene and slightly sad, something the survivors might like to clip and carry around in their billfolds.

Before the day was over, although this is no success tale, I was taking the banner story over the phone from the Federal Building, where the Kefauver Committee was grilling assorted politicians and questionable characters.

That first day was the most exciting, for I still had the paper's style to learn. After that it was pretty much routine.

Although the Citizen-News uses the wire services it devotes most of its news space to events in the Hollywood area, which is one big reason it has built up a strong local readership.

Consequently a rewrite man spends much of his time doing advance stories on meetings scheduled by various groups, clubs, societies, educational organizations and the like.

Details

If they want a detailed report on international and national events, people in Hollywood will buy the L. A. Times or Herald-Express. If they want colorful accounts of scandalous Southern California doings they get the L. A. Examiner or Mirror or News.

But if they want a quick coverage of major stories plus a detailed account of what happened and is going to happen in Hollywood, they buy the C-N.

I wrote only one motion picture story during the period I filled in for the invalids. That had to do with Louis B. Mayer and Dore Schary and others donating funds to a local hospital.

But if you want the inside details on the baby show held at Hollywood Legion hall, the planting of redwoods in Griffith Park on Arbor Day, the domino and checker games at recreation center and the dressmaking courses given at Hollywood High School, just send a fan letter to the editor of this paper.

Which all goes to show that although Hollywood is the home of beauteous creatures who entertain millions on the screen, the daily life of the average citizen and his interests aren't any different than those of your neighbors in Daly City.

Market Street "Most Dangerous"

Market Street, San Francisco's main stem, is the most dangerous street in the city.

A Police Department survey, released by director of traffic Capt. Jack A. Eker, mapped all high-accident locations in the city during 1950 disclosed the city's most dangerous areas:

Market, from The Embarcadero to Douglas, 187 personal injuries, three fatalities; Third Street, 105 personal injuries, six fatalities; Howard Street from Second to Tenth, 68 personal injuries, two fatalities; Potrero Street, 16th to Army, 51 personal injuries, one fatality.

State Now On Biggest Buying Spree Since War

MARCH 22. (CNS) — Californians are embarked on the greatest buying spree in history and the consumer buying wave is even greater than that which followed the outbreak of war in Korea.

The State Department of Agriculture today said that advices from Washington show that sales in retail stores, not only in this state but throughout the nation, are up 25 per cent over those of a corresponding period last year.

What is more remarkable, it said, is that the run on stores has been recorded during months when business in normal times drops off after expanded Christmas buying.

Home furnishing sales are up 22 per cent, building materials 17 per cent, automobiles and jewelry 13 per cent, and apparel 18 per cent.

The department has been advised sales in food stores have only increased slightly, buyers apparently easing off in their demands for food to store against possible shortages.

Prices have continued to rise. This is true in both wholesale and retail fields with February prices 1.6 per cent above those of January and 16 per cent over those in effect prior to the Korean outbreak.

Farmers are receiving 15 per cent more for their products than they did one year ago, but are paying increased prices for the food and supplies they purchase.

Economic activity, spurred on by civil defense, will expand food consumption this year and employment and hours worked will increase, the department has been advised.

Revenue from summer dances held in Marin County's "Rose Bowl" completely supports the Larkspur Fire Department.

Bright Spot During Dark Months

Snow and cold weather may be the outlook for the next few months, but even the snow man takes heart when he looks southward and sees the bounty of sunny Florida citrus fruits now available. This year's crop is an excellent one, and there are plenty of oranges, grapefruit and tangerines to more than insure a daily quota of flavorful Vitamin C for every member of the family. First, there should always be a morning glass of orange juice or a half grapefruit. Grapefruit halves are good for first or last course at luncheon or dinner, and by varying the toppings, they can be served often without monotony. Oranges, grapefruit and tangerines, the little kid-glove fruit, can be used in salads, fruit cups, and to lend new flavor to vegetables, meats and fish.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

Harry, the "happy baker" wishes the following local residents the best of everything on their coming birthdays:

March 17: Mrs. D. R. Travaskis, 1023 Washington Street; Dorothy Keyna, 160 Bruno Avenue; Mark Sullivan, 123 Garden Lane; Henry Keyna, 160 Bruno Avenue.

MARATHON DRIVING

Don't be a marathon driver. If you are taking a long trip, plan to drive no greater distance in one day than you can cover in safety and comfort, recommends the California State Automobile Association.

SLIPPING CLUTCH

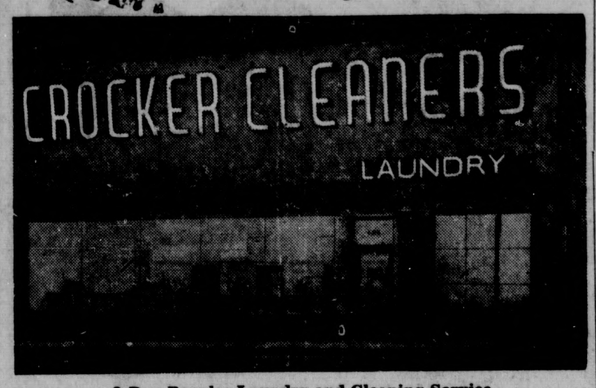

When your automobile clutch slips it causes rapid wear of the clutch facings and also loss of power between the engine and driving wheels. This, says the California State Automobile Association, also results in fuel wastage.

Tuolumne County contains the largest land area of the famous Mother Lode group of counties, 22,000 square miles.

New Car Price Mark-Up Explained

All new cars are not subject to the dollars and cents mark-up allowed dealers under a recent amendment to ceiling price regulations affecting automobile sales.

Only new cars purchased by dealers and billed to them by manufacturers after March 1 may reflect the actual increased dollar-and-cents price passed on to them by the manufacturer, the Regional Office of Price Stabilization announced today.

Today

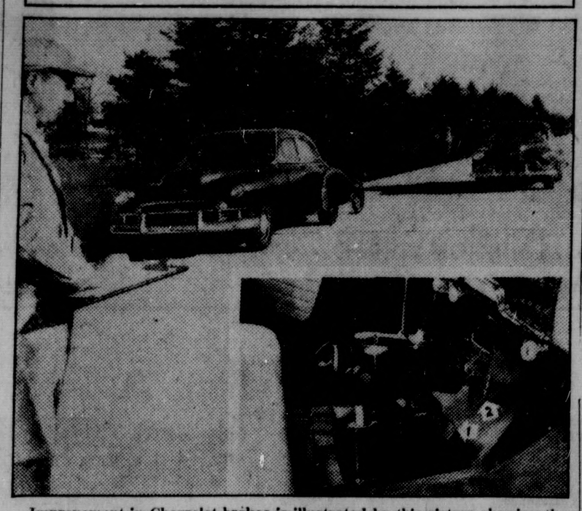

This method of establishing ceiling prices for dealers on new cars in line with the 3½ per cent increase allowed manufacturers March 1 is covered by an amendment effective March 6 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation. This amendment allows dealers to pass on to new car buyers only the actual amount in dollars and cents paid the manufacturer for a car purchased after March 1. For example, on a car formerly priced at $1500.00 by the manufacturer to the dealer, the 3½ per cent increase effective March 1 will bring the price to the dealer after March 1 up to $1552.50. Thus, the dealer can only add $52.50 to his suggested retail price from the manufacturer.

Beginning March 3, under the new amendment used car dealers in California, Arizona and Nevada were required to select and use only one guide book from the list of four included in the General Ceiling Price Regulation (NADA, Red Book National Used Car Market Report, Blue Book National Used Car Market Report and Kelly Blue Book.) During the base period, car dealers were permitted to use all or any of the four in this region.

Used Cars

Every used car dealer must file the name of the guide book selected by him within thirty days after the first sale after March 2 with the nearest District Office of Price Stabilization and must continue to use that book in the future.

Robot Stops Cars in Test

Improvement in Chevrolet brakes is illustrated by this picture showing the difference in stopping distances between a 1950 and a 1951 car using exactly the same brake pressure. To eliminate the human element, engineers used a mechanical pedal pressure applicator (inset) on both cars. When the foot lever (1) is tripped the piston exerts a constant pressure on the brake (2).

Navy Still Needs WAVES

The navy urgently needs young women for the navy "Wave Corps." Career women, looking for a better career, might do well to look into the opportunities offered to women in the navy Waves.

Today, wearing the smart uniform of blue which identifies the Waves, is also a patriotic thing to do. Waves are performing a host of assignments for the defense of our country. Waves may be assigned to such duties as aerographer, hospital corpsman, machine accountant, dental technician, or air controlman, plus a host of other duties. Although the greater number of assignments are to naval establishments within the continental limits of the United States, Waves are able to volunteer for duty at a number of shore stations overseas, such as Hawaii and England.

will reign as queen of the fiesta and her identity will be revealed on March 31, the closing day of the event.

Spring Comes To Maiden Lane

Spring will come to Maiden Lane on March 29 and for three days the narrow downtown street will blossom with thousands of daffodils and other spring flowers.

The two-block thoroughfare between Stockton and Kearny Streets will have special window displays, store decorations and special programs, according to Ansel W. Robinson, president of the Maden Lane Association.

This year a mystery mannequin" will be introduced — masked — to model the latest spring fashions in participating stores during the festival Gift certificates will be presented to the person who most accurately guesses her occupation and age. The mystery manequin
